

Note on industrial enterprise surveys conducted by the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences and World Bank during 1991-1992 (chapter 4)

(1) Full documentation, including background of the surveys, sampling frame, and English versions of the questionnaires used, can be found in the file “China Data Documentation” (by Wenyi Xu, Gary Jefferson, and Philip Rathja, 1993), posted here.

(2) Although two other Chinese research units were also involved (see the aforesaid documentation), CASS was the main collaborator of the World Bank research team in the surveys. For brevity the surveys are referred to as the CASS-World Bank surveys in the book.

(3) Highlights of the surveys can be found in a book in Chinese (中国工业改革与效率: 国有与非国有企业比较研究. 林青松、杜鹰. 昆明: 云南人民出版社, 1997). Excerpts of the book are posted here with permission from the lead author of the book.

(4) Chinese versions of the questionnaires of the surveys are posted here.
